

POST-SURVEY

Born Learning Survey

This survey is part of an evaluation of the Born Learning materials. The survey is voluntary and does not affect your participation in the parenting program. We are interested in what parents and caregivers think about helping children learn. On a scale from 1 to 7, how much do you agree or disagree with the following list of statements? 1 means you strongly disagree with the statement, 4 means you are neutral (you neither disagree or agree) and 7 means you strongly agree.

1. First, please write today's date: _____

How much do you agree or disagree? Circle 1 to 7 for each statement.	Strongly Disagree		Neutral			Strongly Agree
2. Children learn through playing.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
3. Children are learning constantly, right from birth.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
4. Adults can encourage children's learning by involving them in everyday activities.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
5. Talking, singing, and reading to children helps them learn.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
6. By responding to children's cues (such as picking up an infant when she cries), adults teach children that they care about their needs.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
7. Unless parents and caregivers take care of themselves, it is hard for them to take good care of their children.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8. Children learn better when parents use routines with them. (For example, a bedtime routine may include changing a diaper, reading a story, and saying goodnight. A clean-up routine may include singing the same song together each time toys are put away).	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
9. Giving children love and attention will help them to learn better.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
10. Experiences during the first few years of life affect a child's brain development.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
